ITS FIRST ANNIVERSARY.

Calvary Industrial Home Visited by Many Yesterday—An Interesting Occasion.

The entertainment given by the Y. P. S. C. E. on Tuesday evening was an enjoyable affair and highly appreciated by the inmates of the home.

The first anniversary of the home was celebrated yesterday by keeping open house all day, giving a large number of visitors an opportunity of seeing the workings of the institution and observing its present advantages, the good it is now doing and its needs for the future.

The meeting at 3 p. m. was largely attended. The Rev. E. M. Poter presiding. A statement of the work of the home for the past year was presented as follows:

Lodgings furnished, 12,057
 Lodgings worked for, 4,788
 Meals furnished, 25,271
 Meals worked for, 16,118
 Nationalities represented, according to order: Americans, Irish, Germans, Englishmen, Swedes, Scotch, Canadians, French, Austrians, Russians, Danes, Italians. About sixty different occupations (not including laborers, of which there were over 600).

A great number of the men from the home have received lucrative positions on the outside. We have a fine class of men in the home at the present time and can supply business houses with competent help.

Liberal donations were thankfully received of clothing, groceries, etc., from a large number of friends outside, who came to inspect and learn something of the work of the home.

The board of directors are looking for a larger building in order to provide the home with increased facilities to continue its work in the future, and to enable it to provide for a larger number of new persons. Also to give relief from the cramped condition caused by lack of room for work, storage and a proper entrance for teams, as well as increased house accommodation and appliances to promote health and comfort.

Mr. William F. Neef of Albany, N. Y., has succeeded Mr. R. W. Mansfield as superintendent, and will be pleased to have all who are interested to call and inspect the workings of the home.

Daughters of Rebecca.
 New Haven lodge, D. of R., will hold a supper and social at the residence of Mrs. E. R. Parry, No. 204 Ferry street, this evening, January 18.

BEFORE ST. PAUL'S CHURCH CLUB.

Rev. E. S. Lines Reads a Paper on "Religion to the Public Schools."

At a meeting of St. Paul's club held last evening Rev. E. S. Lines read a paper on "Religion in the Public Schools." Some of the leading features of the paper are as follows:

This is a subject in which we all ought to be interested, and have opinions about. Two classes of people holding different conceptions of religion, one holding dogmatic views, while others believe in a simple moral sense.

Without religion one side of the nature is undeveloped. It must have a part in the education of every individual. Dogmatic statements about religion should not be taught, but we must not let our children grow up without being taught the elements of religion.

Mr. Felix Adler and his school mean to teach religion in the school, but not revealed truths. His ethical school takes a most liberal view of religion; but this school of ethics would only teach the subject matter of morals; they would not undertake to give it sanction. I am incredulous of moralizing. The inquiring child will in time ask why a thing is so. You cannot teach morals without getting back to the law of God. Children need the voice of authority. Examples of goodness and righteousness are useful, but cannot be substituted for the divine law. I would like the old custom of reading the Bible every day in the school revived. I think that most of us could testify that we derived much good from this, and at least obtained from it a respect for religion. When the Bible cannot be read without contention I would let it go. Rather than have a division of the school fund I would eliminate the Bible from our public school exercise. We must leave this in the hands of the teacher. The whole tone of moral instruction depends upon the character of the teacher. For positive religion we must look to the home and the church.

In England the public school system has only been lately developed. There are "board" schools and "voluntary" schools. The "voluntary," or parish school, receives part of its support from the state, and can be established by any parish belonging to the Church of England, or otherwise. Two hours of secular instruction must be given each session, and can be proceeded or followed by religious instruction. In all the board schools the Bible is daily read and religious instruction given, and the influence has been profoundly felt for good. In France, not only is religion taught, but there is scornful treatment of religious things. Her criminals have increased in number while in England, where religion is taught in the public schools, there has been a marked decrease in crime among those educated in the public schools.

THE ANNUAL MEETING.

Of Howard Avenue Congregational Church—Officers for the Year.

At the second session of the annual meeting of Howard avenue church last evening the remaining reports were read. The trustees' report seemed to show that the society is not so prosperous financially as might be wished, and the present outlook would hardly warrant the increase in the minister's salary, as had been expected.

By a vote of the meeting the number and order of special Sunday collections was somewhat changed, so that more funds might be diverted to the sinking fund, which has been somewhat depleted. It was also voted to purchase 100 hymn books. The following officers for the ensuing year were then elected:

Clerk, Willis N. Buttricks.
 Treasurer, Charles B. Foote.
 Sunday school superintendent, Eli Manchester; first assistant superintendent, Charles B. Foote; second superintendent, Mrs. F. D. Wylie; assistant clerk, H. H. West; assistant treasurer, C. C. Chalker.

Deacon, J. H. Smith.
 Deaconesses, Mrs. William J. Mutch, Mrs. E. A. Beckley, Mrs. George R. Bill, Mrs. George A. Barrett, Mrs. F. D. Wylie.

Prayer meeting committee, Charles B. Foote, William J. Mutch, W. N. Buttricks.

Tithing men, Walter S. Foote, M. A. Buttricks, J. H. Smith.
 Superintendent of ushers, J. H. Smith.
